Foodies have a new reason to explore Jumeirah Lakes Towers, as Taste JLT makes its debut – a two-week celebration of the neighbourhood’s diverse culinary landscape.

Running from 29 May to 14 June, the festival brings together a wide selection of restaurants across JLT, each offering specially curated 2- or 3-course menus for a set price starting from AED 50, making it easier than ever to explore the concepts across the district.

Over the years, JLT has established itself as one of Dubai’s most popular dining destinations, home to hidden gems serving authentic cuisines and homegrown concepts that have become city-wide staples of Dubai’s dining scene, all within a walkable community.

Taste JLT is an opportunity not only to discover these culinary gems, revisit favourites and explore the neighbourhood through its food; but also to support the local businesses that play an important role in shaping Dubai’s reputation as a diverse and dynamic food scene.

Participating venues include (A-Z):

Bait Maryam; Betawi; Buffalo Wings & Rings; Canary Club; Chalco’s Mexican Grill; Cibo Italiano; CQ French Brasserie; Daikan Ramen; Golositalia; Good Burger; Hanoi Naturally; Hawkerboi; House of Indonesia; Kimi Izakaya; Maiz Tacos; McGettigan’s; Mythos Kouzina & Grill; Nola Eatery & Social House; Nonya; Not Only Fish; Paros; Pitfire Pizza; Rohini; The Black Sheep; The Mad Greeks; UBK; and 1762. Many of these concepts were created by individual entrepreneurs and chefs, offering a more personal experience and unique flavours.

With its pedestrian-friendly layout, waterfront views and growing mix of dining options, JLT offers an easy and accessible way to explore a variety of cuisines in one place.

For two weeks, Taste JLT will transform the neighbourhood into a curated food trail, giving diners the opportunity to experience a world of flavours across the best of JLT's dining scene.
